

Soon I will be home

Tore Aas

I'm walking a path, I'm following some steps.

The road I'm traveling on is rough but I'm safe.

'Cause you have taken me by your hand and your words are the signs that
I must follow,

You guide me through my sorrow.

There will be days my eyes become blinded.

And I will stumble and I will fall.

But then you fill my heart with peace, you touch my eyes so that I can see
The place made for me

Ref: Soon I will be home

Soon, I reach the Promised Land.

Soon I meet him face to face,

And He'll say, now you can rest.

When I see him, I freely can sing

Blessed be my Father, all mighty King

I lift my voice, I sing His praise,

'cause He has saved me by His loving grace.

Ref: Soon I will be home...

Stick: Someday I know I will see Him

Someday I know, I'll be there
